MONDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1864.

UNION STATE TICKET.

For Congressman,
J. H. D. HENDERSON, of Lane County.

For State Printer,
HENRY L. PITTOCK, of Multnomah County.

For Presidential Electors,
GEORGE L. WOODS, of Wasco County,
H. N. GEORGE, of Linn County,
J. F. GAZLEY, of Douglas County.

Judicial District Nominations.

Second District—For Judge—R P Stratton, of Lancaster; Prosecuting Attorney—J F Watson.
Third District—For Judge—R P Boise, of Polk county; Prosecuting Attorney—H Mallory, of Marion county.
Fourth District—For Prosecuting Attorney—E W Hodgkinson, of Multnomah county.
Fifth District—For Judge—G H Wilson, of Wasco county; Prosecuting Attorney—O H Meigs, of Wasco county.

ALL A CHEAT.—The real Secession Democrats, that is, a majority of those who now train openly in the Democratic ranks, are fearful that they will be cheated in the Chicago Convention by the nomination of a war candidate for the Presidency. The New York Freeman's Journal, which is Jeff. Davis all over, says "somebody will be cheated." The New York Convention that elected delegates to the Chicago Convention, did not dare to pass any resolution, either for or against the rebels, and the war; and hence the New York Freeman's Journal says "somebody will be cheated" by the delegates, and its fear is that the peace Democrats will be. It calls on the party in the State to rally and elect delegates by Congressional Districts to go to Chicago as the true representatives of the party, and says they will be admitted. It admits that a dozen or so genuine rebel sympathizers are on the delegation, but their influence will be neutralized by the instructions to vote as a unit. It says the real Democracy has been betrayed by the leaders. Three or four of the Copperhead concerns in this State are afraid of being cheated.

The above from the Sacramento Bee, may apply with equal force in Oregon: somebody is to be cheated: Democrats know it, and are getting very shaky on their pins. One of the old standards says, if Col. Kelly utters a word in favor of the war, he will vote and work against him with all his might. Others with equal zeal, say if he does not support the Government, they will not support him, and it rather looks to us as though the Colonel would not get much support from any quarter. The pro-slavery men don't love him—the War Democrats are afraid of him, and perhaps the best and most creditable thing for him would be to go back to the Dalles and practice law. Politics, Colonel, on the course you are pursuing will kill anybody—you can't be classed with, and will be supported, by those who desire the overthrow of the Union.

OREGON CITY ELECTION.—Our neighbors will elect their municipal officers to-day; the Union ticket is this:

For Mayor, Forbes Barclay; Recorder, Jos. D. Lowry; City Treasurer, W. C. Johnson; Assessor and Collector, W. P. Burns; City Attorney, W. C. Johnson; Street Commissioner, John Meldrum; City Marshal, D. J. Glover; Councilmen, A. L. Lovejoy, Arthur Warner, George Haas, Wm. Barlow, R. Jacob, H. S. Buck, Wm. Whitlock.

We sincerely hope that nothing will hinder the election of each men. Dr. Barclay is just one of the best men we have in Oregon—loyal, whole souled and thoroughly noble: he has been for many years one of the most faithful friends of the cause of education and good government, whom we know: surely the people of his own town will not allow him to be defeated.

"BOY-SE" AND "CARY-BOO."—The Victoria Chronicle, of British Columbia, has the information direct that a great reaction is taking place in Oregon regarding the Boise mines, and that 800 passengers who lately landed at Portland from the Panama, found the town filled to overflowing with disappointed wealth hunters, who had been to Boise and found the mines worthless, because of the scarcity of water. If the report be true, Carlboo, the richest known gold field in the world, will rejoice in a large accession to her population during the coming season.

All the above about miners giving up their journey, &c., is a great big—humbug. No such state of things ever happened here.

AIDING THE SANITARY FUND.—A Democrat lost an election bet at Austin the other day, by the terms of which he was compelled to carry a sack of flour a certain distance. He performed his task, and the flour was then put up at auction for the benefit of the Sanitary Fund. The first sale realized $350, and during the day the resales brought $4,400. A dispatch to the Union says that it was to be started to-day at a standing bid of $100. A baker offers $100 as the last bid, and when the bidding is over the flour is to be sent to the Mississippi Sanitary Fair, and the money to the Sanitary Commission. Pretty good, all around.

PUBLIC SPEAKING IN LINN COUNTY.—Gov. Gibbs and Hon. Geo. H. Williams will address their fellow citizens at the following named places, at one o'clock P. M. of each day:—Jefferson, Monday, May 16; Scio, Tuesday, May 17; Lebanon, Wednesday, May 18; Brownsville, Thursday, May 19; Harrisburg, Friday, May 20.

The Democratic papers are berating Congress for endeavoring to drive the notes of rotten private banks out of circulation. Wild-cat banks are the fruits of Democratic growth; no wonder they howl over their prospective destruction. The people, however, will rejoice, though Copperheads do wail and gnash their teeth.

THE BODY OF COL. DAHLGREN.—The Washington Star says that it is understood that the rebel authorities have signified their intention to give up the remains of Col. Dahlgren, and it is expected that they will shortly arrive at Fortress Monroe.

KENTUCKY AND THE ADMINISTRATION.—The peculiar position of Kentucky on the negro question has been remarked by all. The late trip of Gov. Bramlette to Washington, to tinker in behalf of slave-holders and tobacconists, has been a general subject of newspaper comment. The New York Times, among others, says:

If Kentucky is to supply her quota in season at all, it must be supplied in part at least by her slaves. The law which requires her slaves everywhere, to be embraced within the draft, instead of being a violation of the rights of Kentucky, is an indispensable act of justice to other States. It is absurd to call it unconstitutional. So far as slaves are persons, the Constitution makes no distinction between persons in regard to military service due the Government. All that is left to be regulated by Congress at its discretion. So far as slaves are property, the Constitution expressly prescribes and authorizes the taking of private property for public use with compensation; and compensation is specially provided for in the Congressional Act. There never was a more monstrous pretension than that a Kentucky slave is neither a man to be drafted nor to be touched, but a tertium quid, within the limits of the land to be sure, yet absolutely beyond the reach of the National arm. It is the first duty of the National Government to save itself from destruction; and there is no earthly possibility of its doing this but by filling its armies through drafts made upon the respective States. It has no right to make distinctions between these States to shift burdens upon a portion that ought to be borne equally by all. It has no right to give Kentucky credit for the number of her young men who are fighting in the rebel army against its life. It has no right when it fixes a day for a draft to be made, to arrange that a certain State shall have an extension of time which is not in like manner granted to all the States. Kentucky is entitled to no favors which Maryland or New York or Ohio may not also receive. It is her business to supply her quota at the time due, and if she cannot do it in the way she would like, then do it in the way she can. The process may injure her darling system of Slavery, but that is no reason for her not fulfilling her National duty. She cannot make it a reason without giving proof that her professed loyalty is a hollow mockery.

THE NEGRO'S "STATUS."—A Syracuse "schoolmarm," who is teaching the black idea how to shoot in Florida, writes to a firm in San Francisco of her black pupils, as follows:

"So far as the rudiments of education go, I do not see but these people learn as readily as whites. They learn to read, write and spell well enough, but when it comes to abstract reasoning most of them fail, and the exceptions to this rule are quite sure to be those who have more or less white blood. The 'status' of the negro is certainly below that of the Caucasian. There is no use in crying 'equality,' for they are not the equals of the whites, either mentally or physically. I believe, however, in giving them their rights, and mean to do what I can to better their condition."

PITCH FROM OREGON.—By the barks Almatia and Industry from Portland, Shed & Wright, ship chandlers, received a small lot of pitch made in Oregon. This is said to be the first lot of the stuff ever brought from that quarter, of home manufacture, but it is stated that for the future large supplies of pected, turpentine [illegible]
Ship caulkers who have examined the article report it as being of first quality, and far superior to the North Carolina pitch which has been sold in this market during the last two years. One article of commerce after another, before unnoticed, seems to be produced on the Pacific coast, just as the necessities of our people require them. In view of the high prices ruling for many of them in the East, it may not be long before we become large shippers as well as producers.—S. F. Bulletin.

STRANGE THINGS.—An exchange naturally remarks that it seems strange to see the New Orleans True Delta, the Baltimore Sun, the Norfolk Day Book, and other papers of that class, come to us laden with panegyrics upon what they used to denounce as a Black Republican Administration, and filled to overflowing with diatribes against slavery—commendation of the conduct of the negro regiments, and clamor for an increase of pay for colored troops.

AS THEY GO FROM ST. JO. TO IDAHO.—The St. Joseph Herald recently noticed sixty wagons crossing the river on their way to Idaho. On one wagon (it was from the "State o' Maine") were the following "directions:" "Bound for Bannock, the land of Gold." "Conscripts, Indians and Mormon widows." "Our motto—riches or more poverty."

A "Democratic" paper in New York says that Gen. Grant is "one of the blackest and most intolerant abolitionists—a regular howling dervish."

The General has had the luck to make "Constitutional Democrats" howl some, also down South.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that the Government pay to the citizens of Minnesota the sum of $1,000,000 for losses sustained by them during the Sioux war.

THE OHIO SOLDIERS' VOTES.—The Supreme Court of Ohio has decided that the soldiers' vote is constitutional. Certainly it's constitutional, and national, and rational, and—undebateable!

TEN THOUSAND PERSONS "ACCIDENTALLY" BURNED ALIVE IN JAPAN.—In August last, in Japan, not a building, with 2,000 beings in it, but a whole city of 170,000 souls was suddenly burned to ashes in a few hours—a city of paper and bamboo, covering many square miles, filled with its women and children, the sick and the infirm, the blind, the halt and the maimed. It burned like straw on many sides at once, reddening the ocean for leagues with its flames. It was fired without warning by bombshells, and red-hot shot, rained incessantly during two days into its midst. In that vast conflagration it is morally certain that not two thousand only, but at least five times, perhaps ten or twenty times 2,000 helpless creatures must have perished. No brilliant pen has painted for us the hideous incidents of their last agonies, and the horrors of an infernal fire, before which that of Chili burns pale and feeble. That death was dealt out to those innocent beings in Japan by English sailors—purposely, unjustifiably and boastfully—not in war, not in necessity, not in self-preservation, but in order to strike terror into a harmless people whom we are bent upon forcing into trade.—Letter in London Daily News.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to April 30.

Capture of Camden, Ark., by Gen. Steele.

Price Outgeneraled.

Nine Fortifications of Great Strength Taken.

Active Operations in Virginia not to be commenced at present.

Little Washington, N. C. Captured by the Rebels.

Later from the Army in Louisiana.

The Rebels Marching on Grand Ecore—Our Troops going out to meet them.

PENNSYLVANIA INSTRUCTS FOR MR. LINCOLN.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Particulars of the capture of Camden, Ark., by Gen. Steele have been received. Crossing the Little Missouri at a point near Arkadelphia, Washington and Camden, Gen. Steele by his movements deceived Price into the belief that he intended to attack Shreveport. Price hastened to Prairie Du Rodge, dug rifle pits and threw up earthworks, when Gen. Steele executed a sudden flank movement which caused Price to retreat towards Washington. Having placed Price on the rear of a circle, Steele moved directly towards Camden. Discovering his mistake, Price concentrated his cavalry, and with Marmaduke and Dockery on the flank and rear, hoped to so embarrass Steele that his infantry could not gain the fortifications at Camden. Steele pressed on, however, fighting his way for 71 miles, and entered Camden on the 15th. Nine fortifications of great strength were taken, with a large quantity of sugar, molasses, pork, etc. Price had burned all the cotton for miles around.

Blair's case was debated at length in the House yesterday.

Stevens, in the session last night, offered a substitute for the bill to provide for a republican form of government in the States overthrown by the rebellion. The substitute provides that seceded States when conquered shall be regarded as Territories, and be represented in Congress as such.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The Times' special says:—Officers from the front last night profess to believe that active operations will not be commenced at present. The enemy are again busily engaged in throwing up more earthworks, digging rifle pits and strengthening various points on the Rapidan. Their pickets have been strengthened along the whole front and extended further down the river towards our left. Picket firing has again been resumed, and small skirmishes take place almost daily on the outposts. There is no truth in the report of the concentration of a large rebel force in the Shenandoah Valley near Front Royal. The rebel force in the Valley is Early's Division of Ewell's Corps, which our troops there outnumber two to one. Early's forces have been augmented by irregular cavalry under Imboden, while Mosely's and Gilmore's troops do not amount to 6,000.

The World's special says: It is rumored from Fortress Monroe that Little Washington was captured on Monday, and that the investment of Newbern would immediately follow.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Gen. Burnside left yesterday by special conveyance to join his command and signal corps that has been stationed here through the winter.

It is now fully understood that Lee will endeavor to bring on a fight without leaving his entrenchments.

New Orleans letters say our soldiers have entirely recovered from the effects incident to their recent marches and severe battles. A rebel battery had been planted at Compto, a few miles above Grand Ecore, in consequence of which Gen. Smith burned the town. Gen. Grover's Division was still at Alexandria. It will probably remain to protect the country and people from guerrillas.

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—The Union State Convention assembled have adopted a resolution to the effect that delegates be instructed to support Mr. Lincoln for the Presidency and to oppose all efforts to postpone the Baltimore Convention, and that only of the heaviest blows this could be inflicted on the rebels would be the re-election of Mr. Lincoln.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Admiral Dahlgren left today for Charleston.

[illegible] enemy on our immediate front have for two or three days been very active, as if anticipating an advance. Deserters say they are bringing up forces from Charleston, Florida, Lynchburg, and other points.

MADISON, Ind., April 29.—A gang of guerillas crossed the Indiana line night before last, and burned a trading boat a short distance below this city. They also stole a flock of sheep and some cattle.

ST. LOUIS, April 29.—A Vicksburg letter of the 22d, says:

The steamer Lucy brings news from Red river that no more fighting had occurred up to the 20th. The rebels were reported to be marching on Grand Ecore, and on the 20th our troops were going out to meet them. Our army was believed to be strongly entrenched at Grand Ecore, on both sides of the river.

The New Orleans Era of the 27th says that passengers from Red river report that the impression prevails that the rebels are not at all particular as to another engagement. As our army is now prepared for another advance, there will probably be another engagement soon.

Jackson County Union Convention.

JACKSONVILLE, April 30.—The Jackson County Union Convention met to-day and nominated the following candidates: For Representatives—Thos. Croxton, O. Jacobs and B. F. Myer; For County Clerk—Wm. Hoffman; For Sheriff—C. W. Savage. For Coroner—L. S. Thompson; For Treasurer—E. T. Russell; For Commissioners—J. S. Love, and Joseph Satterfield; For Public Administrator—O. D. Hoxie; For School Superintendent—M. A. Williams; For Assessor—F. B. Sprague; For Prosecuting Attorney—B. F. Dowell.—[A very good ticket. ED. OREGONIAN.]

NEGRO EQUALITY.—The Copperhead press is terribly annoyed about negro equality. Is it not remarkable that no one but a Copperhead has fears of being "subjugated" by the negro? Is it not very odd that the Copperheads are so alarmed at the advancement of the poor black man, whose crime is his color and only exists in imagination? Does it not surprise sensible men to hear such talk about the danger of being forced to a social equality with the negro? There is no compulsion about this matter. A man can choose his own company, and if he does not wish to eat and sleep with colored people, he can eat and sleep with white folks, or alone. The cry about "negro equality" would almost warrant the presumption that the colored people, when free, would refuse to associate with Copperheads! But these appeals to prejudice are all understood. It is believed to be a political lever, or machine, by which some people are influenced and prejudiced against the Republican party. We cannot put the construction on these manifested fears as being honest—because it places them in what we think a false position. We don't believe that the negroes, when free, will insist on associating with this class. Men, white or black, do not love their enemies, and where there is no love there can be no equality or intermarriage. So on this principle we think that the Copperheads are giving themselves unnecessary anxiety. People of all classes will amalgamate and degenerate, and we don't see any use in kicking against the laws of nature. In a political view of this subject we believe, that if the Democracy was sure the colored people would vote when franchised, the Copperhead ticket, the party would be suddenly converted to "abolitionism." But this question is all gammon. "As a man thinketh so is he," and there is no use of an argument. If a white man hates the black from prejudice, and not cause, reason is out of the question.—Alpha.

Howell Cobb is making speeches in Georgia in which he proclaims that, as a last resort, he will assemble the women of the Confederacy and march them forth for duty in the field. Just the thing. Our armies will be pretty sure to surround them!

BISHOP OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.—Father De Herbomez has been made Bishop of British Columbia; and a British prelate has been dispatched from Canada for this city, to act as Bishop-coadjutor to the worthy Bishop Demers, of Vancouver's Island.—Victoria Chronicle.

CHALK MARK TO SUIT RIGHT.—"I once," said a friend, "saw a regiment of Tennessee niggers on parade; and when they came to the 'right dress,' with the white of their eyes all turned, it looked just like a chalk mark!"

"FIRING THE SOUTHERN HEART" AGAIN.—The Richmond journals have printed what they pretend to be instructions and general orders found on the body of Colonel Ulric Dahlgren, and they lash themselves into a fury over the contents of these documents. The unlucky or awkward fellow to whom the manufacture of these spurious documents was confided in Richmond, in his haste, a good deal overdid the matter. He "piled it on the agony too thickly," to use a phrase familiar to the lovers of the blood-and-thunder sensation drama. In his anxiety to make up a horrible and startling case, which must without fail "fire the Southern heart," he put in too much horror. It is doubtful if Colonel Dahlgren carried any papers at all upon his person of the kind which the Richmond journals print. Why should he? Neither the "the address" nor the "instructions" could be of the slightest use on the march, especially to the Colonel; and if he had been capable to accept and carry out orders of such a kind as are imputed by the wily rebels, he would have taken care not to carry about him any line which would convict him of such purposes if taken prisoner. "Once in the city, it must be destroyed, and Jeff. Davis and his Cabinet killed." Does any one believe that a brave and honorable officer such as Colonel Dahlgren is acknowledged even by the rebels to have, would undertake such orders? Those who venture to impute such intentions to a soldier and a man of honor are themselves most capable of them. The Southern people are cooling down; they are wearied of war and suffering, and they no longer believe the Yankees such monsters as they were taught and persuaded to think them three years ago. This condition of public sentiment in the South is fatal to the rebel leaders, and they have lately taken several extraordinary means to stir up the blood of the people. Among them the forged dispatch put upon Colonel Dahlgren is the most desperate, and at the same time the clumsiest. For, not to repeat that a man like Dahlgren would not have accepted such orders, and that there is not an officer among his supporters whom even rebel impudence would dare charge with issuing them, it will occur to everybody to ask why he, the Colonel commanding, should carry such a paper; and why, if he did for some inscrutable end carry it, it should have been in writing and not in cipher?

Speaking of "ciphers" reminds us of a discovery, made in the year 1861, of a plan by which General Beauregard hoped to surprise Washington, which was frustrated by the capture of a rebel dispatch of a very ingenious kind. The message, when deciphered, ran thus:

"I shall cross the the river above Little Falls on Sunday at 2 A. M. Signal red and white rockets from Turner's Hill. For God's sake, don't fail us. Fire the city at all points agreed on at once. Dispatch Lincoln and Scott as you suggest, and let the execution of our plot be perfect.

BEAUREGARD."

This dispatch we have seen; the plot failed probably because the secret message was intercepted, and the authorities were on the alert. The miscreants who could plan an assassination in 1861 are quite capable now of attempting, by a forgery, to fix this crime upon another not living, to defend himself.—New York Evening Post, March 10th.

MINISTERS AND POLITICS IN MASSACHUSETTS.—Connected with the Massachusetts Legislature are fifteen clergymen, viz: One Universalist, two Unitarian, one Methodist, five Baptist and six Congregationalists.

ON BOARD THE STEAMER EXPRESS,
April 30th, 1864.

We, the passengers on board the steamer Express, Capt. Van Bergen, wish to express our thanks to the Captain and officers of the steamer for the handsome manner in which we have been accommodated on our passage from Pomphrey's Landing, on the Cowlitz river to Portland. We found the Cowlitz river perfectly and easily navigable for the steamer Express. She made her downward trip with rapidity and without the slightest detention—being managed with much dexterity and skill on the part of her officers.

Retiring from the Practice of Medicine.

A CARD.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY begs leave to announce to the public, and particularly to his patrons on the Pacific Coast, that he is about to close his business, with the view of retiring for the present from the arduous labors of his profession.

As it is his intention during the ensuing Fall to leave the United States, for the purpose of visiting Europe, he will not receive any new patients after the first day of July, 1864. Those, therefore who may desire his services will apply within a reasonable time. Dr. Czapkay desires to assure those who are now under his care, that they will continue to receive all the attention which his obligations prescribe and their cases respectively demand. Those who hold contracts guaranteeing a cure are hereby requested to report to Dr. Czapkay before the first day of June, 1864, whether or not they are satisfied that a cure has been effected in their cases respectively. All who do not thus report within the time specified will be regarded and treated as cured.

In taking leave of his patients and the public, Dr. Czapkay desires to express his profound gratitude for the extraordinary patronage bestowed upon him, and the confidence reposed in his professional ability.

During his residence in California, Dr. Czapkay has treated successfully upwards of twenty-five thousand patients, which is the best guarantee that his course of treatment has been rewarded with a success at once personally gratifying and almost unprecedented in the annals of medicine.

Any physician in good standing, who may desire to purchase the interest of Dr. Czapkay in his "Institute," and the good will of his business, may make application at once to state proposals.

Address Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

Established in 1854 for the Permanent Cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the Suppression of Quackery.

Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., in the late Hungarian Revolutionary war, Chief Physician to the 30th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of Genito-Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise free. Address—Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

SPERMATORRHŒA or loss of weakness, nervous debility, low spirits, headache, weakness of the limbs or back, indisposition and incapability for labor and study, dullness of apprehension, loss of memory, aversion to society, love of solitude, timidity, self-distrust, dizziness, headache, inflammatory discharges, pains in the side, affections of the eyes, pimples on the face, sexual and other infirmities in man, are cured without fail by the justly celebrated physician and surgeon, L. J. Czapkay. His method of curing diseases is now, unknown to others, and hence the great success. All consultations (by letter or otherwise) free. Address L. J. Czapkay, M. D., San Francisco, California.

THE MAY FESTIVAL.—The May party given on Saturday last by the students of the [illegible] land Academy and Female Seminary, was in every way fitting to the occasion, and passed off in a creditable manner. Scholars, others, to the number of about 200, participated, embarking on the Senator, and while the well-filled steamer left her wharf the lively crowd made the river banks ring with the melody of their voices, in "Shouting the Battle Cry of Freedom!" It being early in the morning the effect was a pleasant surprise to all who heard it, and the gallant steamer plowed her way up abreast of the city with thousands of good wishes went to her. Upon reaching Ross Island the party were landed, and the enjoyments of the festival were entered into heartily, until 2 o'clock P. M., when the sound of the steamer's whistle called the crowd together, and they set out upon the return. They passed the city, going as far as Swan Island, singing some fine patriotic airs, and wound up with "Home Again," feeling all the better for the day's recreation, and having partaken of a free ride on the handsome steamer Senator.

THE NEW WORLD.—This fine steamer was the subject of great attention yesterday, [illegible] from the time she arrived until evening [illegible] decks were crowded with visitors. [illegible] many who greeted her, used the fond remembrance that she was an "old familiar friend;" and appeared happy in the thought that an opportunity was afforded them to again renew the acquaintance. It is gratifying to be assured by such evidences that the O. S. N. Company have the best interests of their patrons—the travelers and shippers—at heart. She is the fastest boat on the coast, in all probability, and from her great size will be enabled to carry passengers and freight free from the annoyance incident to travel on small boats. With such steamers as the [illegible] G. Hunt, the Idaho, and those above [illegible] the traveling community have [illegible] for a long time past, but we hope we [illegible] not be considered as casting any reflection, when we say the New World and Oregon will throw them all "into the shades." If the public wants demand such boats, the Company are determined they shall be supplied. The New World will leave for the Cascades to-morrow morning.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER NEW WORLD.—Purser Harris, of the steamer New World has furnished us with [illegible] San Francisco papers, up to the date of leaving there, and memoranda of the trip, from which we learn that the steamer [illegible] Francisco at o'clock A. Weakness of the Kidneys.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not perfect health.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap10dlm

Weakness of the Kidneys.—In the affection of the kidneys, called "Bright disease," the general prostration and lumbar weakness generally resist all medical treatment, and the patient sinks slowly, but surely into the grave. If disorganization has not proceeded too far the PERUVIAN SYRUP will arrest the granular disease, and restore the patient to comfortable if not perfect health.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap10dlm

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial Agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to the investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was to be highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1859, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; lithe to pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and bring the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of supporting vigor to the broken-down frame and battered constitution, which has yet been introduced or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the lost strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction

Ice! Ice! Ice!

I WILL FURNISH

A Scene in the Salt Lake Theatre.

A correspondent of the New York Atlas, who writes over the signature of E. P. H., gives the following description of what he witnessed in the great Mormon theatre at Salt Lake, on the occasion of a lecture by Artemus Ward:

"I expected to be able to see a play. In that I was disappointed. Artemus Ward had come along and been picked up by Brigham Young to deliver his lecture on the 'Babes in the Wood.' I had heard the same lecture before, but, thinking the circumstances, I could bear to hear it again, I sallied forth to the theatre. On arriving at the door and applying at the ticket office for a card of admission, I was told that only 'standing-room' remained. Looking through the box office window, I saw a heterogeneous collection of dead fowls, sucking pigs, eggs, parcels of preserved peaches, gloves, hose, new coffee pots, gridirons, old bottles, boots, and pickaxes, all of which, according to the custom of the city, had been accepted as currency, entitling the bringers of the same to admission. Greenbacks are scarce among the people, and whatever they can produce or manufacture is bartered for tickets. On obtaining my admission card and entering the theatre, I found myself in a most superb edifice, one which for dimensions would favorably compare with any in New York city. I was told that there were three thousand people within its walls, and I really believe the statement was not exaggerated. The interior of the house was decorated with white and gold; there are three tiers of boxes and an immense parquet. The Saints have built the play house, and Brigham, their prophet, owns it. With the proceeds of it, the successor of Joe Smith is enriching himself at a rapid rate. I wanted to see him and to see his wives also. My curiosity was gratified.

In a prosconium box to the right of the stage sat the great patriarch. Beside him was his newest wife—Miss Folsom, as her maiden name was, and as it must be now, so far as I can see, considering that Brigham Young has a few more wives, taken at an early period. The wife looked pale and sickly. Her-and-many-women-else's husband appeared jovial, and anything but saintly. To me he seemed to have more of the look of a Fulton Market butcher than a modern Moses. His other wives were in the house, but they occupied a huge pen on one side of the parquet, under the dress circle. They called it the "corral." I counted about one hundred and thirty-nine of them. Whether Brigham is married to them all, I cannot say, nor would any Mormon tell me. A queerer looking lot of ladies I have never seen collected in one group. Brigham has evidently a catholicity of taste in the matter of female kind. Some of his ladies are blondes, some brunettes and some have Andalusian darkness of eye and hair. In the matter of noses, the Greek, Roman, snub and celestial are all represented in the features of the distinguished inmates of the prophet's seraglio. None of the ladies wore expansive dresses, and most of them had "Nubias" wrapped around the head. In the parquet were the families of many of the prominent saints. Heber C. Kimball was with his fifty and sixty wives, and Orson Hyde with his small family, occupying about seven rows of benches. Every good Mormon had his two or three wives affectionately clustering around him. It was not so in the dress circle for that was occupied by the Gentile population, including Gen. Connor and the officers from Camp Douglas. Higher up, in the third tier, were the "roughs" and the boys. As every respectable Mormon has at least a dozen sons, boys were somewhat numerous.

Artemus Ward was in the midst of his lecture, and the Gentile portion of the audience was convulsed with laughter. Not so with the Mormon crowd; they appeared to be too much awed with Artemus, or not to understand him. Brigham, too, had a severely grave countenance. Bye-and-bye, Artemus made a joke, which Brigham appreciated. He laughed himself, then leaned forward and waved his brown silk handkerchief to his wives; they burst into a laugh also, and the peal rang through the house—the ice was broken. Joke after joke was retailed by the lecturer, and as often as Brigham waved his brown silk handkerchief to them, so often the good Mormons indulged in merriment. Joke, handkerchief, and a roar followed in rapid succession. The orator concluded, made his bow, and was about to leave the stage. He was signalled to remain where he was. Brigham descended from his box and his wives ascended from the "crowd." They marched across the stage in pairs, and each was permitted to have a close view of the lecturer. The procession being over, Brigham shook hands with Ward, and called out, "My dears, are you ready?" His "dears" signified they were, and, following their husband, they marched off to the thirty odd sleighs waiting outside for them; the orchestra struck up the anthem: "God Bless Brigham Young!" the whole Mormon audience joining in the chorus. I left the house unaccompanied and retired to my bed at the Salt Lake Hotel, reflecting that I had looked upon one of the oddest sights I had seen in any theatre, and with the full conviction that the Mormons are in reality "peculiar people." I pitied Artemus Ward having to stand the gaze of those hundred wives, and would have given something to have known his own private thoughts on the subject. I suppose he likes his polygamic friends, and that they liked him, for I left him still lecturing to crowded houses, and initiating jocularity into the minds of the many-wived Mormons."

ADVANTAGES OF CRYING.—A French physician is out in a long dissertation on the advantages of groaning and crying in general, and especially during surgical operations. He contends that groaning and crying are the two grand operations by which Nature allays anguish; that those patients who give way to their natural feelings, more speedily recover from accidents and operations than those who suppose it unworthy a man to betray such symptoms of cowardice as either to groan or to cry. He tells of a man who reduced his pulse from one hundred and twenty-six to sixty, in the course of two hours, by giving full vent to his emotions. If people are at all unhappy about anything, let them go into their rooms and comfort themselves with a loud boho, and they will feel a hundred per cent. better afterwards.

In accordance with the above, the crying of children should not be too greatly discouraged. If it is systematically repressed, the result may be St. Vitus' dance, epileptic fits, or some other disease of the nervous system. What is natural is nearly always useful, and nothing can be more natural than the crying of children, when anything occurs to give them either mental or physical pain.

Probably most persons have felt the effects of tears in relieving great sorrow. It is even curious how the feelings are allayed by their free indulgence in groans and sighs. Then let parents and friends show more indulgence to noisy bursts of grief, on the part of children as well as of older persons, and regard the eyes and the mouth as the safty valves through which Nature discharges her surplus steam.

U. S. Marshal's Notice.

United States of America, District of Oregon, ss.

WHEREAS, a libel of information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, on the 5th day of April, A. D. 1864, by E. W. McGraw, Attorney of the United States for said District, in behalf of the United States, against the ship or vessel Jenny Jones and thirty casks of Ale, and twenty casks of Porter, a portion of the cargo of said ship or vessel, alleging in substance that on or about the second day of April A. D. 1864, the said ship or vessel Jenny Jones, imported into the United States from the foreign port of Victoria, in Vancouver Island, said thirty casks of Ale and said twenty casks of Porter, in packages containing less quantities than six dozen bottles each, and praying process against the said ship or vessel, and against the said goods, and that the same be declared forfeited to the United States.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the warrant, under the seal of said Court, to me directed, and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the vessel, or said goods, or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court, to be held at Portland, in said District, on the first Monday of May next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, provided that same shall be a day of jurisdiction, otherwise on the next day of jurisdiction thereafter; then and there to interpose their claims, and make their allegations in that behalf.
